JUDGING MEASURES

In addition to their camping skills, the girls chosen to represent the county at the national encampment will also be judged on their Scout records, loyalty to their troops and council and personal characteristics.

WHEAT QUOTA VOTE AUG. 24

Wheat growers will vote August 24 on whether marketing quotas will be in effect on the 1962 wheat crop, the local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office, was notified Friday.

J. Glenn Miller, office manager, said the ASC committee will probably select polling places next week. Committees are being set up to conduct the voting. Miller said quotas for wheat production were announced by the U.S. secretary of Agriculture May 12, but the federal official did not set a date for a referendum pending congressional action on the new wheat program.

The date for the referendum was announced today in order to let the farmers know in advance and encourage as many as possible to vote.

If the quotas are approved by at least two thirds of the farmers who vote cooperators will be eligible for 1962 wheat price support at a level to be determined later. If quotas are not approved, there will be no limit on marketing. Price support, at 50 per cent of parity, will be available only to those farmers who comply with acreage allotments.

STACKPOLE'S PENS ROUSER ON SHERIDAN

A good war dies hard, and the raft of Civil War books published in the last few years simply proves the adage.

Gen. Edward Stackpole, author of four books on the Civil War, has added a new study, "Sheridan in the Shenandoah," to the documentation he began with "They Met at Gettysburg." His other works are "Chancellorsville—Lee's Greatest Battle" and "From Cedar Mountain to Antietam."

The present volume deals with the summer of 1864 when Lee sent Gen. Jubal Early into the Shenandoah to break up a Union threat against his supply and communication lines. He was ordered also to make a stab at Washington to force Grant to divert his forces from Petersburg. Early swarmed over the valley and terrorized Washington residents.

DRAWS SHERIDAN

But he drew Sheridan as an opponent, a canny, superlative craftsman, who soundly defeated Early in a series of battles and practically destroyed his forces. Washington was freed. Union morale was lifted and, on the strength of this campaign and Sherman's success at Atlanta, Lincoln's reelection was assured.

Stackpole draws on the usual primary sources and on a couple of windfalls such as contemporary appraisals of Sheridan and a group of letters which authenticate the materials. As usual with Stackpole, the forays are well analyzed, the narration is clear-cut and the maps, photographs and drawings serve to drive home the text.

RIDE TO FAME

Sheridan's ride to fame sparkles with action and there are asides on such characters as John Mosby, Jeb Stuart and others which make rousing reading.

Some of the ventures here are close to home: The burning of Chambersburg, Sheridan's clash with Meade, and the Battle of the Monocacy.

Civil War buffs will get a special delight from "Sheridan in the Shenandoah." Here is a man of decision, a commanding general who rose to fame on merit and never lost a battle. This is a good portrait of his glory ride.

A meeting of the Adams County 4-H Senate was held Thursday night at the Hoffman Home, near Littlestown. Robert Smith, president, was in charge. All exhibits for the roundup must be in place by 10 a.m. It was announced that clubs interested in entering exhibits at the Adams County or the South Mountain Fair should work on them now. Exhibits at the Adams County Fair must be in place by 7 p.m. on August 27. Hosts for Thursday's meeting were the Two Taverns Agriculture and the Littlestown Home Economics Clubs. The next meeting will be held in October with the Baby Beef Club in charge.

Baby Sitter Admits Three Babies Died In Her Arms; Liked Love And Affection

DUBUQUE, Iowa (AP)—A baby sitter described by acquaintances as one who craved love and affection was held today by police, who said she admitted that three small children she tended had died in her arms.

No suspicion had been attached to Miss Mary Kathryn Madigan, 29, of Dubuque, until the county medical examiner determined that Gail Nemmers, 3, who had been left in her care Thursday night, died of suffocation.

Then Police Capt. Byrne O'Brien began looking into the death of another child of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Nemmers, Karen, 22 months, July 12, and the death of Michael Fitzpatrick, 4 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fitzpatrick, July 14.

'HELD BABIES TIGHT'

Miss Madigan, who had acted as baby sitter for both of these families, told police after her arrest and after her recovery from hysteria, that she liked to "hold babies tight."

"I was trying to give them love and affection," she said. Dubuque County Atty. Robert Oeth said he planned to file some type of a homicide charge against Miss Madigan today.

Police Chief Percy Lucas said the woman had made three separate statements in which she related that:

The oldest Nemmers girl, Gail, was being held across her lap and when the child cried she held her hand over her mouth, "quite a bit."

She held Karen Nemmers and the Fitzpatrick boy with their mouths close to her neck and Lucas quoted her as saying: "The seemed to gasp for air, and their bodies went limp."

In each case she put the babies back in their beds, but on Thursday night, after Gail Nemmers had stopped breathing, Miss Madigan telephoned the widowed mother with whom she lived, police said.

Dr. Donald McFarlane, county medical examiner, said there was no indication in the autopsies of the other two children that death was from other than natural causes. He said Karen Nemmers had a congenital heart ailment and the Fitzpatrick boy had virus pneumonia.

"These conditions could be aggravated by suffocation," Dr. McFarlane said.

Louis Fautsch, attorney for Miss Madigan, said her left arm is lame and injuries she suffered at birth partially closed an eye. Police were told she was born with a spastic paralysis.

The mother of the Fitzpatrick boy regarded Miss Madigan as a good sitter who "took excellent care of the children and did extra things around the house."

else Friday: Joe left an estate estimated in excess of $50,000.

The only heir announced so far was Joe's niece, Jean Morris of Chicago. Other heirs, if any, will be announced after the will is admitted to probate.

No one knows how Joe got the money. The County Public Administrator's Office traced the fortune through a check of Joe's assets, which they said included a large amount of General Motors stock and government bonds.

McMullen Friday told of his friendship for the old man.

Why was he attracted to Joe, an arthritic old man with failing sight in his one functioning eye?

Said McMullen: "He never asked for anything. He didn't smoke, drink or swear."

"We'd talk for hours. Joe said he was born in Leavenworth, Kan., and I took Army basic training at Ft. Riley, Kan., so we'd talk about the old days in Kansas."

They also reminisced about the old-time fighters—John L. Sullivan, Gentleman Jim Corbett, Ad Wolgast, Jim Jeffries and Kid Levine.

"Joe could talk about anything," McMullen said.

COUNTY THIRD IN DIVERTING GRAIN ACRES

Adams County is third highest in the state in the number of acres diverted from feed grain production under a new national program.

A state-wide report shows 168,160 acres have been entered in the program to cut feed grain production. Bucks County has the largest acreage entered, 11,479; York County is second high with 10,088 and Adams County is third with 8,601.3 acres enrolled.

The report shows approximately 21 per cent of the land devoted to feed grain production in the county has been diverted from such production. The 8,601 acres represents 20.8 per cent of the 41,316 acres devoted to such grains last year.

DIVERTED ACRES

All of the diverted acres are located on 579 farms, or 27.7 per cent of the 2,086 farms in the county.

Under the program the government will pay about 60 cents on each bushel not produced. Nationwide, the department of agriculture estimates, the feed grain program will increase farm income by about $500,000,000 and will save the taxpayer about $750,000,000 a year over a period of many years. It will also permit the sale of about 400 million bushels of stored corn and grain sorghum. This will for the first time in years cut the amount of feed grains in stock.

The federal figures show that since 1,200,000 farmers throughout the U.S. cooperated in the program production of corn the 1961 crop of corn for grain has been reduced to 3.2 billion bushels, compared to 3.9 billion bushels in 1960.

Savings to the taxpayer will result from not having to pay storage, handling, transportation and interest costs on the corn and grain sorghum which would have been acquired under a 1960 type program. Under the old program only that grain which was first stored could be sold, which meant corn was held from nine to 11 years before it could be sold.

Rebels Seize Algiers Radio

ALGIERS (AP) — The underground right-wing extremist organization today broadcast a message defying President Charles de Gaulle on wave lengths used by Radio Algiers.

A broadcast attacking De Gaulle in extremely violent terms was heard throughout Algiers, leading some residents to conclude that the rightists had seized the Algiers radio in a new uprising against De Gaulle in Algeria.

Officials in Paris said they think the broadcast came from a clandestine post set up to broadcast on the same frequency as the Algiers radio.

FAREWELL DAY ENDS PROGRAM AT TOT LOTS

Friday was "farewell day" for the youngsters who attended the "Tot Lots" of the Gettysburg recreation program this summer.

The eight-week summer season for the playgrounds devoted to the children eight and under closed Friday and at each one a "farewell party" was held. The Stevens St. and Fourth St. groups joined for a program at Spangler Springs where they performed puppet shows, doll shows, etc., for each other, and cookies and soft drinks were distributed. The College Tot Lot ended its season with a box lunch picnic and the Recreation tots spent much of their day in a practice for the Junior Olympics program next week, then concluded with a formal "so long" session.

A new record for attendance was set by the tot lots this year. The 1959 attendance figure was 3,024; 1960, 3,056, and this year's total attendance was 3,479.

OTHERS ENDING

Next week the playgrounds for the older youngsters will hold their final sessions, winding up with an "awards" day on most of the playgrounds next Friday.

The final week's program will include a community picnic Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock for all playground participants and their parents. The families are asked to bring their own picnic supper. Soft drinks will be furnished.

Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock the Junior Olympics program will wind up with the finalists taking part in the junior champ program to be held at the Gettysburg High School athletic field. Events will include running broad jumps, softball and football throws, dashes and relays.

GRAND FINALE

Friday the children from all playgrounds will gather at Recreation Park at 1 o'clock for the grand finale—a watermelon and popsicle party.

The top event in this week's program was the trip to Hershey Monday to see the State Police rodeo. More than 700 children in 12 buses made the trip. Playground supervisors and parents

$1,625 DAMAGE IN ACCIDENTS EARLY TODAY

State police were called this morning to investigate two auto accidents, both on Rt. 116.

At 3:10 o'clock this morning they investigated an accident seven miles east of here on the Hanover Rd. Police said David W. McMaster, 26, Hanover R. 4, was driving east when his car crossed the highway, went off the north side of the road and struck a parked car owned by Emma E. Smith, 31, Hanover R. 4.

Damage was estimated at $175 to the front of McMaster's 1952 sedan and at $5500 to the front of the Smith vehicle. McMaster suffered a laceration of the chin in the accident but did not seek immediate medical care.

SECOND ACCIDENT

At 5:40 a.m. police were called to an accident at the intersection of a township road with the Fairfield Rd., five miles west of here. According to the officer, John B. Reese, 19, Iron Springs, was driving north on the township road and entered the Fairfield Rd. where Reese's vehicle was struck by an eastbound car operated by Lee G. Wills, 28, Greenstone.

Following the collision, the Wills car struck a utility pole and a culvert. Damage was estimated at $150 to Reese's 1952 coupe and at $800 to Wills' 1956 sedan which was described as demolished.

Removed to the Warner Hospital by a passing motorist, Wills was treated for a possible fracture of the right hand and bruises and abrasions of the body.

SCOTT FINED BY JUSTICE IN LITTER DRIVE

Tossing six beer bottles from a car cost Hurman Scott, 23, R. 2, a $50 fine and the costs Friday evening.

Justice of the Peace John Whitman said Scott pleaded guilty to the charge brought after a witness had seen a car owned by Scott passing the Natural Dam area and six empty beer bottles were thrown from the car windows.

The Justice said a charge of throwing rubbish from a car was brought under the vehicle code which provides a fine of from $50 to $100 and may also include imprisonment up to ten days.

TO HALT LITTERING

Scott was arrested by Cumberland Twp. Policeman Bernard V. Miller St. on a warrant out of the justice's office. Justice Whitman said Officer Miller has also been given a warrant for the arrest of a man charged with throwing a bottle into the water at Natural Dam.

According to the justice the rubbish dumping charges are being brought to "break up" littering in the Natural Dam area now that a number of residents of the area have started a campaign to turn the Natural Dam area into a park. The men have placed concrete to protect the natural rock formation which forms the dam, have dredged some stones from the bottom of the Marsh Creek at the point, have cleared away underbrush along the banks of the stream and made driveways into the area from the township road adjoining it, and have constructed tables and benches for the enjoyment of the public.

With so much effort expended, it was decided to keep the area suitable for public use by "cracking down" on litterbugs who would destroy the efforts to improve the area, Justice Whitman said.

ARMED GUARDS RIDING PLANES, SAYS ATA HEAD

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—Stuart G. Tipton, president of the Air Transport Association, disclosed armed guards are riding some flights operating in the United States.

"It's probably just as well not to say which ones," Tipton told the Senate aviation subcommittee Friday.

The subcommittee held hearings on legislation to make airplane hijacking a federal crime punishable by life in prison. Whether this would be enough to deter hijackers prompted discussion of the possibility of armed guards.

"BEST INSURANCE"
Two senators said it is necessary—at least on flights within range of Fidel Castro's Cuba.

"This might be 'the best insurance we could buy,'" said Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney, D-Okla., chairman of the subcommittee. Sen. Clair Engle, D-Calif., author of the proposed legislation, agreed with Monroney that "it probably would be the most constructive thing we could do."

The hijackers who took over a Boeing 707 Thursday said they wanted to force the pilot to fly into Cuba.

On July 24 an Electra plane was hijacked after take-off from Miami, Fla., and flown to Cuba. The passengers and crew were returned, but the plane was held.

ARM CREW MEMBERS
On May 1 a twin-engine Convair was hijacked between Miami and Key West, Fla., and flown to Cuba. It was later allowed to return to the United States.

After Thursday's hijacking over El Paso, Tex., the Federal Aviation Agency authorized the airlines to arm crew members who had received training in the use of firearms and were proficient in handling them.

Tipton said the airlines are concerned about "the possibility of gunplay." Concern also was expressed by Herbert J. Miller Jr., assistant attorney general in charge of the Justice Department's criminal division.

GAVE BACKING
Monroney said, however, that he is "not too concerned" about a bullet ripping a hole in the airlines. He said that planes already are equipped with oxygen masks that automatically fall into the laps of passengers if necessary.

The Kennedy administration gave its backing to the proposed hijacking legislation as a means of meeting the menace of "air drunks, flying fools, and spies in the sky."

The subcommittee called a closed-door session for Monday to act on the proposed legislation. Also under it, assaulting or threatening crew members would be made federal offenses. So would murder, robbery and other crimes committed aboard civil aircraft while in flight. And, anyone carrying a concealed weapon aboard a plane would be subject to a $1,000 fine.

Given More Time To Answer Complaint

By a stipulation of counsel filed Friday in the prothonotary's office the plaintiffs in the assumption action brought by the Great Lakes Cherry Producers cooperative and a number of local growers against the C. H. Musselman Co. were granted an additional 20 days in which to file amended complaints in the action. In addition, since the C. H. Musselman Co. recently merged with Pet Milk Co., the stipulation authorized change of the name of the defendant from the Musselman Co. to Pet Milk. The stipulation was signed by Attorney H. Thomsen, Pyle, of the law firm of Swope, Brown and Swope, for the plaintiffs and Attorneys Franklin Bigham and S. M. Raffensperger for the defendant corporation.

SKIN DIVERS GET 7 BODIES FROM LUCERNE

HERGISWIL, Switzerland (AP)—Seven bodies were recovered today from the bus that took 16 American tourists to their death in Lake Lucerne Wednesday.

Eight other bodies were still missing and were believed to have been swept out of the bus during its plunge to the lake bed. A police official said there seemed to be little hope of finding them.

Another body was recovered immediately after the accident.

SALVAGE SQUAD
A salvage squad raised the bus to the surface in the little boat harbor of Hergiswil village after two days of laborious work.

Skin divers early today brought six bodies out of the wreck while it was still suspended on cables under the lake surface. The seventh body—that of a middle-aged woman wearing a light brown suit—was found wedged between the seats after the bus was set on its wheels on dry land.

Twenty-two persons survived the accident. Four of the survivors were brought to the gymnasium to identify the bodies. They were Robert Work, 23, a student from Westerville, Ohio; Mrs. Blair Crowther, of Tampa, Fla.; the bus driver, Bruno Giacomello, from Como, Italy; and the Swiss tour conductor, Hans Gut.

IMPORTANT CONFERENCE OPENS TODAY

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (AP)—The Latin American economic conference opens today with the major participants determined to beat back any Cuban attempt to wreck the meeting.

The United States and 20 other members of the Organization of American States are taking part in the conference to launch a massive aid and development program that could directly affect the lives of millions in Latin America for years to come.

The United States and Brazil, the two giants of the conference, have reached an agreement on the goals to be achieved, it was reliably learned.

Secretary of the Treasury C. Douglas Dillon stopped off in Brazil on the way here and lined up Brazil's support at a private 90-minute meeting with President Janio Quadros.

SEEK UNITED SUPPORT
Argentina, Chile, Uruguay and Peru were reported joining with the United States and Brazil in a united front to assure success of the conference.

Prime Minister Fidel Castro sent his economic czar, Ernesto Guevara, to represent Cuba at the conference. The fiery Guevara is expected to accuse the United States of meddling in Latin American affairs and otherwise try to torpedo the parley.

Major goals of the conference are:
1. Achievement over the next 10 years of an average annual rate of per capita growth for each Latin American country of at least 2.5 per cent.
2. A substantial rise in agricultural productivity.
3. Maintenance of reasonably stable price levels.
4. A more equitable distribution of wealth.

More Course Turns Boost U.S. Chances

PICTON, Ont. (AP)—A shortened three-mile course necessitating 12 more turns has boosted backing for the United States' challenger, Miss Detroit, in the famed Harnsworth Trophy Race—starting today.

Few powerboat experts doubt that Miss Supertest III, the Canadian defender, can run away from Miss Detroit on the straightaways in the best-of-three events. Today's heat was scheduled for 5 p.m. EST.

But the additional turns could be the equalizer in the 25th Harnsworth, powerboat's top international race. Supertest won the past two years on five-mile courses, the lap distance for 23 of the 24 previous races.

Each race will be 45 miles, 15 times around the Bay of Quinte course.

75 PEOPLE ARE HOSPITALIZED BY POISON GAS

INMAN, S.C. (AP)—Complaints of nausea, dizziness and abdominal pains sent 50 to 75 persons to a hospital for examinations Friday in the wake of a chemical plant fire and explosion that spread poisonous smog over part of this small town.

At least six persons were hospitalized at Spartanburg, about 15 miles away, where an old wing of the General Hospital was reopened to take care of the patients. None was believed in serious condition. But examinations

On the south side of Inman today, scrub buckets sloshed over with sudsy water, and garbage cans were piled with contaminated food as 30 to 40 families cleaned up the homes they had evacuated Friday.

ORDERED EVACUATION

The deadly cloud broke up and drifted out of the area Friday after clinging close to the ground overnight and most of the day. Civil defense authorities had ordered the partial evacuation after being warned of possible deadly effect of the fumes.

Sprinklings of gray ash from the California Chemical Co. plant fire dotted lawns and house tops. Residents were warned to wash all exposed clothing and food and destroy food that could not be washed.

The plant, located away from the main part of Inman, was destroyed by fire and series of explosions that ended early Friday. The smog cloud contained fumes from several deadly insecticides. The fire started when a mixture of methyl parathion and DDT exploded.

FIRES, FLOOD STRIKE COAST

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Lightning fires and flash floods clawed southern California early today, forcing families from their homes, blocking highways and damaging power lines.

The storm that began during the night packed heavy downpours that caused flash flooding near El Cajon and in San Diego and San Bernardino Counties. Lightning kindled at least seven fires in the Angeles National Forest near Los Angeles.

Several families evacuated their dwellings in San Diego County, and highways near El Cajon were submerged in three feet of water. No casualties were reported.

Thunderstorms dominated the national weather scene, appearing in varying intensities over the Middle Atlantic and Southeastern states, with South Carolina bearing the brunt. Precipitation varying from cloudbursts to drizzle was noted in the Dakotas, Texas, Arkansas, Tennessee and the Southwest. The Weather Bureau said the thunderstorms could continue through the day over the East, with the rest of the country generally in for clearer skies and seasonal temperatures.

"RIGHT OF WAY"

Although it is my practice . . . to extend road courtesy . . . there have been times when I have felt . . . like tossing it in the sea . . . for when someone encounters . . . a devil at the wheel . . . patience is exhausted . . . anger starts to un-reel . . . my ire isn't satisfied . . . until I've pointed out . . . to the devil driver . . . just what it's all about . . . but when I settle down a bit . . . and thoughts become more clear . . . the brilliant rays of logic . . . make anger disappear . . . though I was right, still I was wrong . . . and so it is I say . . . the surest road to safety . . . is to give the right of way.

Plane Hijackers Jailed For Grand Jury Hearing

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—An ex-convict and his wild-eyed son were lodged in jail here today awaiting a grand jury hearing Monday for hijacking a jet airliner and attempting a forced flight to Cuba.

U.S. Dist. Court Judge R. E. Thomason ordered a special grand jury convened to determine whether to indict Leon Bearden, 38, and his son, Cody, 16. Both are being held under $100,000 bond.

The pair pulled firearms on the crew of a Continental Airlines Boeing 707 and 65 other passengers Thursday, then ordered the pilot to fly the $5 million jet to Cuba.

A border patrolman, Leonard Gilman, 43, later slugged the elder Bearden, and FBI Agent Francis Crosby grabbed the boy, thus spoiling the plan.

They face charges of hijacking the plane and taking it across the New Mexico-Texas state line and with kidnapping those aboard. The plane was in flight from Los Angeles to Houston.

Gilman appeared Friday before the Senate aviation subcommittee considering bills to impose stiffer penalties for airborne crimes.

FEARED YOUNG SON He said he feared Cody Bearden, 16, more than he did the father. He described young Bearden as a "cold, cool customer who did not smile once."

Congress has urged new action against Cuba and its dictator.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Lou Vassie saved the day for Williamsport with a two-run homer which gave the Grays a 3-2 victory over Reading and moved them within four games of the Eastern League lead.

The homer, Vassie's 11th this season, with two out in the sixth inning, ended a pitching duel between Bruce Pritchard (2-4), the winner, and Frank Smith (7-10). Each pitcher allowed five hits.

Reading's first run came with a 425-foot homer in the second inning by Tony Washington, his third since joining the Indians last month. A sacrifice fly by Larry Outright with the bases loaded scored Charley Fields with Williamsport's first run.

JOHNSTOWN WINS 2 In other games Friday night, Johnstown handed third-place Binghamton a 5-2 and 13-1 setback in a double header, spoiling the Triplets' hopes for the EL pennant, and Lancaster upset first-place Springfield 3-2.

Johnstown was backed by fine pitching by Jim Hansen (5-6), who allowed only two hits in the opener, and Bob Heffner (2-2), who allowed one in the second game. Joe Pedrazini drove in three runs in each game, hitting a homer in the first.

The Red Sox tagged Binghamton's ace, Roy Peterson, for his fourth loss in 17 games.

Johnstown scored eight runs in the second inning of the last game as loser Bob Meyer (7-9) walked five men in succession after striking the lead-off batter.

SINNER IS LOSER Roger Sinner (6-8), a good pitcher with no record to show for it, took the loss for Springfield as Lancaster rallied for two runs in the eighth inning on a double by Gary Kolb.

Winner Bill Wakefield (7-8) allowed the Giants to take a 4-0 lead in the fourth inning but then shut them out the rest of the game.

Sinner allowed four hits until the eighth, when he walked Joe Patterson. Clem Moore singled and Rosie Rosario hit a bunt down the third-base line which went for a hit after Ricky Joseph held back, thinking Sinner would get the ball.

Otto Graham Alibis Loss

CHICAGO (AP) — "I'd like to turn around and play these guys again tomorrow night," said All-Star Coach Otto Graham, "and on a dry field I think we'd beat 'em."

Graham's remarks were made in the hot and steamy college All-Star dressing room after the Philadelphia Eagles had whacked the stars, 28-14 Friday night in Soldier Field.

"Had we scored on that first play, we'd have had them on the run," continued Graham, "and even then, don't think those guys were relaxing out there."

The condition of the field, wet and soggy because of an early evening rain, cost the stars dearly in the services of All-America halfback Joe Bellino of Navy. Bellino, going down for a pass in pre-game drills, slipped and pulled a leg muscle.

Graham said the wet ball made it tough on his receivers. "The ball kept slipping out of their fingers," he said. "These kids can catch and throw. I said we could move the ball and they proved I was right."

However, someone did look up when Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower entered Friday night. National championships were forgotten for the moment as everyone stood and gave the former president a lusty cheer. This happened five times—in each of the five rooms of the plush downtown hotel where various divisions of the tournament were under way.

In the room where some 300 persons were playing in the main event, Eisenhower sat down at the back of the room and watched over the shoulder of Alvin Landy of New York, league executive secretary.

The former president, himself a bridge player, was not content to watch. For more than an hour and a half he discussed virtually every play with Landy, the three other players at the table, and several among those who crowded around. Such eminent kibitzing seemed to make Landy a little nervous at first, but the former president soon became virtually a contestant.

If this was a violation of the rules, nobody seemed to mind. Eisenhower was accompanied by a long-time bridge buddy, Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, former commander of Allied forces in Europe and now president of the American Red Cross. Eisenhower came to town in the afternoon as a weekend guest of Gruenther, but tournament officials said they did not know of the visit to the hotel until a few minutes before his arrival.

Armed with oars and paddles, they drove off the mammals, some measuring up to 30 feet.

The whales were believed to have sought refuge from marauding killer sharks.

Villagers, fearing the beach would be littered with maledorous carcasses, put out in small boats to drive off the invaders.

Time and again the whales were repulsed but came back for more.

Mrs. Arthur White, a fisherman's wife, commented: "It was a tragic sight, as if the whales were trying to commit suicide. I felt almost sorry for them. But we couldn't let them land. They'd have spoiled a lot of people's holidays."

LIKE A TOLD STORY

There is something of sadness about the ending of an absorbing book in which have lived life, art, beauty, instruction and entertainment.

But only for a brief moment is the regret of ending felt — for immediately there is aroused a desire to make all that has been read a real part of the intricate garment of experience.

Nothing really ends. Nothing stands still. All is change. Today is not like yesterday, but a continuation in another form.

The outpouring of one heart to another is not an emptying, but a refilling.

The mind is like the gills of a fish taking in and letting out the waters that refresh and give life and make it worth all the pains, sorrows, disappointments that form the substance out of which rise all our joys.

Like a told story is experience — making us strong when we are weakest and giving us faith when our faith seems most shattered.

Even after I have read a book that has been of great inspiration, I like to keep it around, very near to me.

The tiny sprout, breaking the earth and reaching up for a touch of the sun that it may rise to maturity and final beauty, tells a story. But after that story is old, there remains the gift of its loveliness and perfume.

Every time you think, you help to tell a story, to yourself and to the world.

What we are here for is to pick up, to shoulder, and to carry on! Protected, 1961, by The George Matthews Adams Service

Just Folks

A LITTLE CHILD SHALL LEAD THEM

And a little child shall lead them,
Out of sorrow and despair;
Out of trouble and of grieving,
To the meadows bright and fair,
Yes, a bright-eyed boy or lassie,
With a merry, smiling face,
Comes to lead her weary parents
To the land of love and grace.And a little child shall lead them
To a life of pure delight;
Where the sweetest music's laughter
And the sun shines ever bright;
Where all life is love and frolic,
Where all tears are quickly dried—Yes, a little child shall lead them
To a land where joys abide.And a little child shall lead them
Out of quarrels and out of strife;
Out of bitterness and envy
To a calm and peaceful life.Yes, a little child shall lead them
With a baby's merry arts,
Bringing comfort to their bosoms
And a gladness to their hearts.

Government Plays Huge Role In Business Today

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—What the government might think or do becomes an increasingly large factor in much of today's business planning.

Government antitrust suits, tax laws or interpretations, import quotas, international policies, all play a big role. Today's news columns are full of examples of government interest in, and policing of, business practices.

Business decisions today often must go far beyond what might seem to be the prime question: Will there be a market for our goods? Can production costs make the business profitable? Will competition allow prices that insure a profit?

EYE ON WASHINGTON
Investors also have to watch Washington closely these days. Its moves can upset a corporate appetite, reverse a stock market trend, or even set the future climate for business in general.

State and local laws, rulings, taxes, franchises, zoning also can spell profit or loss to individual companies. In many cases they also can determine whether a company stays or moves—or where it moves.

This isn't to argue the right or wrong of any one or all of the laws or government policies. It is merely to state one of today's most important facts of business life: Governments at all levels are becoming close partners of business.

AT&T
An example is this week's disclosure that the Justice Department is thinking about trying to force American Telephone & Telegraph to get rid of its overseas communications network. At the same time the government is playing, understandably, a major role in AT&T's plans to go into outer space communications.

The antitrust threat took the stockholders, the biggest group in the nation, by surprise. The price of AT&T stock dropped $4.62 to $121. That helped send the industrial averages as a whole down moderately from their Tuesday high. It halted, whether briefly or otherwise, a rally that had sent the market into new high ground after President Kennedy announced a defense stepup.

General Motors and Du Pont stockholders also are keenly aware of the possibilities inherent in the government's stand that Du Pont must get rid of its large bloc of GM shares. Not only are stock prices involved, but also the matter of income tax payments on the capital gains when Du Pont sells or hands the GM stock to its own shareholders.

HOLD EASTERN LEGION GAME

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The "National League" All Stars defeated the "American League" All Stars 52 Friday in the 18th annual Eastern Pennsylvania American Connie Mack Stadium.

The league scouts selected 18 players from the two squads for the All-East team which meets another Legion group from western Pennsylvania at Monessen Aug. 26.

The "Americans" scored an unearned run for a 1-0 lead in the first inning. The victors tied it in the second when John Schweitzer of Adamstown singled to the right field, driving in Ernie Stafina of Easton, who had reached base on an error. Singles by Schweitzer, Joe Carazo of Palmerton, and John Churetta of Slatington, and an infield out sent across two runs in the fifth and put the "Nationals" ahead for good.

TEAM MEMBERS CHOSEN

Chosen to the All-East team were: American—Bill Albright of Camp Hill; Mark Zaackman of McClure; John Pincavage of Shillington; Jim Calley of Scranton; Bob Morris of Palmyra; Tom McLaughlin of McClure; Dan Kristoff of Harrisburg; Tom Matchick of Freehold; John Hartman of Richland; and Neil Casale of Williamsport. National—Norm Koc of Bethlehem; Larry Cook of Philadelphia; Starnia, Bill Spencer of Philadelphia; Ed Kaminski of Langhorne; Fred Hamill of Glenolden; Lou Pacholli of Easton, and Paul Pavelko of Bethlehem.

The Philadelphia Inquirer's most valuable player award went to Norm Koch, a fastballing left-hander from Bethlehem. Koch, 18, started for the "National League" and hurled two hitless frames while fanning four. He is a 6-2, 197-pounder, and a football all baseball star for Bethlehem High School.

SAYS KENNEDY IS "COMPLEX"

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev thinks President Kennedy is a complex man who "stems to the loudest shouters."

A competent informant gave an account.

Khrushchev's views of the young American President he met last June in Vienna came up during a discussion of the Berlin crisis.

The Soviet premier said he felt Kennedy's attitude on the Berlin situation was not actually as strong as the position Kennedy took on his recent speech.

Fanfani asked why Khrushchev didn't approach negotiations with that in mind.

Khrushchev's reply was that he considers Kennedy complex — more complex than the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. He did not elaborate.

He added that in the United States everybody shouted and the man who shouts loudest wins.

And Kennedy, he told Fanfani, then listens to the loudest.

AMES, TUTTLE WILL STAR IN NEW TV SERIES

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Leon Ames and Lurene Tuttle were joined in the bonds of television matrimony nine years ago when they began playing father and mother in "Life with Father." In September they will turn up again in a series—married to different people.

How this situation in CBS' new "Father of the Bride" is going to affect the sensitivities of the great, believing TV audience is a question.

"We had conferences about it," conceded Ames. "And we decided that the situations in the two shows were far enough apart to avoid shock or confusion. The Day family lived in turn of the century settings. This is modern."

Miss Tuttle, who had a long and successful career in motion pictures and radio before TV, says that working with Ames was the most rewarding experience of her professional life.

BERGEN SUFFERING INJURY

Polly Bergen, playing a nurse in the first "Wagon Train" shot in color, fell off a horse a few days back and has been in agony all this week from pulled muscles in her shoulders and neck. She has her doctor's okay to work, however, but is living on painkillers and wears a brace on her neck between scenes.

MAVERICK DROPS STAR

At a time when most hour-long action shows are beefing up their casts with multiple heroes to spread the work load, ABC's "Maverick" is cutting down to one.

Jack Kelly will be the sole Maverick left in the show next season. After James Garner had walked out of the show in a dispute with his producers they brought in a British accent. That didn't work, so then they tried a younger Maverick brother, Robert Colbert. He too disappears after the summer re-runs.

100 Agents Crash Harrell Estate To Seize Deserter

LOUISVILLE, Ill. (AP)—More than 100 policemen and FBI agents poured onto the estate of religious leader John R. Harrell Friday and seized Harrell, 16 followers and a Marine charged with desertion.

An armored car crashed through a heavy wooden gate defended by young men carrying rifles.

Two FBI agents had pleaded unsuccessfully Thursday through the gate with Marine Dion Davis, 18, to return to Camp Lejeune, N.C.

The jail in Louisville was filled to capacity with Harrell and his followers, all charged with harboring a deserter from the Marine Corps.

FBI agent Manley Hawks of Centralia, Ill., who tried for two days to get Davis to leave Harrell's well-guarded, 100-acre estate, said the group would be arraigned before a U.S. commissioner.

Harrell said he gave sanctuary to Davis after the youth told tales of immorality, debauchery and atheism in the Corps. Davis, of Greenville, Pa., was classified a deserter May 29.

SCATTER CROWD

FBI agents, policemen and county enforcement officials went through the gate as the armored car scattered more than a dozen young men defending the entrance. No shots were fired. Harrell was found in the basement of the mansion he modeled after George Washington's Mount Vernon home.

Harrell, 39, unsuccessful candidate for the Republican nomination for the U.S. Senate, founded the Christian Conservative church and an anti-Communist school on the estate.

CHURCH MOVEMENT

His church movement has caused much controversy in Louisville in the last two years. Pranksters have burned crosses on his well-groomed lawn. Authorities once had to quell a small riot there.

Harrell and five followers were convicted in March of truancy charges stemming from their refusal to send their youngsters to approved schools.

In Washington, FBI headquarters said Harrell previously had told FBI agents he realized he was defying the authority of the United States government and, in effect, was in a state of armed insurrection against the United States. He further claimed, the FBI said he had a direct message from God ordering him not to surrender Davis.

Phillips Defeat Legion 5-3; Opposes Eagles For Title This Evening At Six

The Phillips 66 team became a finalist in the Big Little League playoffs by defeating the American Legion 5-3 Friday evening.

Tonight at 6 o'clock Phillips meets the Eagles for the playoff championship. The league's annual All-Star Old-Timers game will be played Monday evening.

Carl McCans' Legion outfit scored a run in the top of the second only to have the Phillips team come right back with three runs in its half of the same inning. Phillips made it 4-1 in the fourth when Harman singled with one out, stole second, Lutz walked and Garry Herring singled to send Harman across.

After picking up a run in the fifth, the Legion tabbed its final run in the sixth on back-to-back doubles by Ronnie Plank and Ed Tilberg. Charley Buckley followed with a single but was out trying to stretch it into a double. Tilberg going to third. Tilberg was cut down at the plate attempting to score on a passed ball.

In the last of the sixth Curt Eckert's outfit added an insurance run.

Mike Flynn led the winners' five-hit attack with a single and double. The Legion, accounting for 10 hits, were led by Dave Knox who poked a pair of singles and a double.

Fairfield Little League

The three-hit shutout pitching of Frank Bowling and the hitting of Dennis Rebert enabled the Braves to walk off with a 6-0 win over the second place Cardinals, Friday night.

Bowling allowed but three safeties, striking out three and walking one. Rebert went two for four at the plate.

The Braves scored once in the third inning on a pair of singles by Larry and Gary Hull. The winners came up with two more runs in the top of the fourth on a walk to Luther Sanders, a fielder's choice to Mike Cornwell and a single by Eddie Nagle.

Monday's game between the Giants and Braves will not be played because of the All-Star game at Gettysburg.

YANKEES WIN; ORIOLES SPLIT WITH ANGELS

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
For the first time in his major league career, Frank Lary is proving that he is more than just a "Yankee killer."

Until this year, the gritty right-hander was just a .500 pitcher in six seasons with the Detroit Tigers—when you exclude his 23-6 won and lost mark against the Yankees. In fact, the other American League teams beat him more than he beat them.

It's different this year. The Alabamian, now 30, Friday night registered his 15th triumph of the season, pitching the Tigers to a 6-1 victory over Cleveland. Lary's seven-hitter kept the Tigers with a game and a half of the Yankees, who needed 10 innings to defeat Minnesota 8-5.

ORIOLES DIVIDE

Baltimore divided a double-header with Los Angeles, winning the second game 3-0 after the Angels had taken the opener 3-1. Kansas City blanked Boston 5-0. Chicago's White Sox and Washington were idle.

KALINE SLAMS 14TH

Lary already has beaten every team in the league except the Senators, whom he has faced only once. Minnesota, with two victories in three decisions, is the only other team to hold an edge over him. Two Cleveland hits and an infield out in the third inning produced a run and prevented Lary from making his third straight triumph over the Indians a shut-out.

Lary got solid hitting support from Al Kaline, Jake Wood and Billy Bruton. Kaline slammed his 14th home run with a man aboard in the third to snap a 1-1 tie. Wood had three hits including his eighth home run. Bruton had a couple of singles and scored twice.

Johnny Blanchard's home run with two out and two on in the 10th won for the Yankees. A mental lapse by Minnesota second baseman Ted Lepcio preceded Blanchard's game-winning blow. With two out in the 10th, relief pitcher Bill Pleis walked Mickey Mantle, and Yogi Berra followed with a single. Mantle was trapped between second and third, but Lepcio held the ball long enough for Mickey to dart to third base. Blanchard, given a chance to bat, broke up the game.

ROOKIE BLANKS SOX

Norm Bass, Kansas City rookie, shut out the Red Sox with four hits for his fifth triumph. Norm Siebern's seventh inning homer off loser Bill Monbouquette was all the young right-hander needed. Jack Fisher hurled a five-hitter at the Angels in retaliation for a three-hitter pitched against the Orioles in the first game by Los Angeles left-hander Ted Bowsfield.

Dave Philley drove in one of Baltimore's runs in the nightcap with a pinch double. It was his 20th safety as a pinch hitter, trying the league record set by Ed Coleman of the St. Louis Browns in 1936. Sam Leslie of the 1932 New York Giants holds the major league mark of 22.

EAGLES BEST ALL-STARS IN PRO FASHION

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles, bristling from a greeting of boos from the fans, proved their National Football League championship pride Friday night by harpooning the college all-stars 28-14.

They beat a good collegiate football squad after a prolixe probe of its weakness—pass defense.

And the Eagles, booed by many of the 65,000 fans as they trotted onto the rain-soaked sod of Soldier Field, showed their detractors they could do it without the golden arm of Norm Van Brocklin—the quarterback who led them to the NFL crown last year, then quit and became coach of the Minnesota Vikings.

BELLINO IS INJURED

The All-Stars suffered a severe stroke of bad luck during warm-ups before the game, televised and broadcast by ABC. Navy's Joe Bellino, a key man in their strategy of attack, slipped while going down for a pass and pulled a right leg muscle. The All-American halfback, who soon begins a four-year stint in the Navy as an ensign, was to have made his last game a big one. He sat it out on the bench.

Bill Brown (Illinois-Chicago Bears) ran back the opening kickoff 39 yards, and Norm Snead (Wake Forest-Washington Redskins) hit Aaron Thomas (Oregon State-San Francisco 49ers) with a 42-yard pass that went to the Eagles' 12.

STRIKE DULLS

It looked as if the All-Stars were primed, but they were pushed back to the 17, and the quick strike was dead.

Minutes later, the Eagles got the ball on their 20. Sonny Jurgensen, Van Brocklin's understudy, was caught trying to pass. But he flipped the ball behind him like a globetrotter basketball player.

Pete Retzlaff took it for 13 yards. It touched off an 80-yard drive in seven plays, capped by Jurgensen's 27-yard touchdown pass to Tommy McDonald. He was completely in the open.

McDonald snared two more Jurgensen tosses, each for 24 yards, for touchdowns, and Retzlaff took one for 25 yards.

LATE RALLY

The Eagles led 21-0 at halftime and made it 28-0 with their fourth tie with four minutes left in the game.

Then Bill Kilmer (UCLA-49ers) brought the collegians to life with passes from the short punt, spread formation. In six plays they surged 75 yards. Kilmer capped it with an 18-yard scoring pitch to Glynn Gregory (SMU-Dallas Cowboys).

Then guard Dick Green (Ohio U-Cleveland Browns) intercepted a King Hill pass and lumbered 57 yards for a touchdown.

"Had we scored on that first play, we'd have had them on the run," said All-Star Head Coach Otto Graham. "I'd like to play them again—and on a dry field I think we'd beat them."

Coach Nick Schirich said: "Our guys were concerned about being somewhat downgraded while the stars were being touted, and we went out to justify our championship."

DECIDE TENNIS TITLE TODAY

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., the top seeded player, and Edda Buding, national champion of Germany, meet today for the Philadelphia and District Women's Grass Court Tennis Championship at the Germantown Cricket Club.

In reaching the final round Friday, Miss Moffitt defeated Marilyn Montgomery of San Antonio, Tex., 6-3, 5-6, 6-1, while Miss Buding defeated second-seeded Victoria Palmer of Phoenix, Ariz., 6-2, 6-2.

Miss Montgomery made a stirring comeback after Miss Moffitt, at match point 5-2 in the second set, returned a backhand into the net. Miss Montgomery then took 18 of 22 points for the set. Miss Moffitt rallied, however, to win the last six games straight.

Miss Buding, also U.S. Clay Court champion, kept the ball deep, and then occasionally trapped Miss Palmer with drop shots.

PHILS RALLY FAILS IN 9TH

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Relief Pitcher Ed Bauta of the St. Louis Cardinals stopped the Philadelphia Phillies 9-8 Friday night with none out in the ninth and two runners on base.

The Phillies, who blew a three-run lead in the first inning, were behind 9-7 in the final inning. They added a run off singles by Johnny Callison, who had four of his team's 14 hits, George Williams and Wes Covington, and brought Bauta to take over from Craig Anderson.

Tony Gonzales smashed a line drive, but Joe Cunningham leaped up against the right field fence and trapped it. Then pinch hitters Bobby Gene Smith and Lee Walls struck out, ending the game.

Julian Javier and Jim Shaffer hit two-run doubles to lead the Cardinals' 12-hit attack. Callison also hit a home run in the fifth inning for the Phillies.

Don Ferrarese, first of four Philadelphia pitchers, was charged with the loss, the team's 11th in the past 12 games.

HAZLETON DUO WINS TOURNNEY

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—The Central Pennsylvania Women's Better-Ball-of-Partners Golf Tournament was won Friday by Mrs. Edgar Dessen and Mrs. John Dyson of Hazleton, over Mrs. John Dunn of Hazleton and Betty Fehl of Reading with a 7 and 6 tally.

After four holes the two couples were all even, but the Dysons team won the next seven holes. They were seven up after 11 holes and halved the 12th, going that far one under par.

FIRST FLIGHT WINNERS

In the first flight division the winners were Mrs. Clem Mosman and Mrs. A. Dellandaro, both of Wilkes-Barre, who defeated Mrs. Robert Klotz and Mrs. Robert Smith, both of Hazleton, 3 and 2.

Other winners were: Second Flight—Mrs. C. F. Tressler and Mrs. Charles Hertel, both of Hazleton, defeated Emmajan Destan and Mrs. Clayton Stephens, both of Reading, 3 and 2.

Third Flight—Mrs. Betty Haver and Mrs. Thomas Weichel, both of Wilkes-Barre, defeated Mrs. Emerson Evans and Mary Huyett, both of Reading, 6 and 4.

SIGEL IS FAVORED

ITHACA, N.Y. (AP)—Jay Sigel, a quiet dark-haired youngster from Whitmarsh, Pa., was the almost unanimous gallery choice today in the U.S. Golf Association's 14th Junior Championship. For the fourth round, Sigel was paired against Andy Nusbäum Jr. of Salina, Kan.

The quarterfinal round late today cuts the field to four players for the semifinal Sunday morning. The final, also scheduled for 18 holes, will be played Sunday afternoon.

Catcher Don Leppert of the Pittsburgh Pirates was a discus and javelin thrower at Wabash College in Crawfordsville, Ind.

SPAHN WINS 299TH GAME; EYES RECORD

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer
Wonderful Warren Spahn, Milwaukee's splendid southpaw, needs only one more victory to become the seventh pitcher in modern times to record 300 major league triumphs.

The 41-year-old Oklahoman registered his 11th victory of the season Friday night and 299th with the Braves, outpitching San Francisco's Mike McCormick 3-2. Outfielder Henry Aaron made the victory possible with a pair of home runs, the first tying the score in the seventh inning and the second breaking the tie in the ninth.

REDS BEAT BUCS

Cincinnati's Reds, leading the league, opened a two-game lead over Los Angeles, defeating Pittsburgh 5-4. The Dodgers dropped a 4-2 decision to the Chicago Cubs. St. Louis outlasted the Philadelphia Phillies 9-8.

New York's Yankees maintained their lead of a game and a half in the American League over Detroit, defeating Minnesota 8-5 in 10 innings while the Tigers were beating the Cleveland Indians 6-1. Kansas City shut out Boston 5-0. Los Angeles' Angels divided a double-header with Baltimore. The Angels won the first game 3-1 and the Orioles took the second 3-0.

Spahn yielded only five hits for his fourth victory in five starts against the Giants this season. Milwaukee now trails the third place Giants by only one game.

Aaron's homers were his 28th and 29th of the season.

Frank Robinson, the league's leading home run and RBI man, drove in Cincinnati's winning run with a ninth-inning double.

OVERCOME DEFICIT

The pirates had taken a 4-2 lead in the eighth, climaxed by Dick Stuart's 17th home run. The Reds came back with four straight singles to tie the score.

George Altman slammed two homers—his 21st and 22nd—and drove in three runs to lead the Cubs to victory over the Dodgers. Sandy Koufax was the Dodger starter and loser.

Julian Javier and Jim Schaffer hit two-run doubles to lead the Cards' 12-hit attack against four Philadelphia pitchers. The decisive run, however, was driven in by Stan Musial, who drew a walk as a pinch hitter with the bases loaded in the seventh.

Color-Blind Pickers Can Cut Tomato Crop Profit

By FRANK S. ZETTLE
Adams County Farm Agent

Color blindness is more prevalent in men than women. That's why growers should test tomato pickers before the season starts to determine whether any individual may be color-blind. Poor grades received on the tomato grading platform can sometimes be traced to a color-blind picker.

FRANK S. ZETTLE

There will be many pickers this year who are picking for the first time, and unless they are carefully screened, instructed and supervised, some will not know how or what to pick.

To help color-blind pickers some growers tie a ribbon or tape around the wrist of the pickers. The tape is the exact color the tomatoes should be when they are ripe and ready for picking. With this red ribbon on his wrist, the picker will then be able to match colors and do a better job.

GROWERS SUFFER TOO

Some tomato growers themselves are color-blind. In this event growers should get others to instruct the pickers. This can mean dollars and cents in the grower's pocket.

Be careful not to injure vines and unripened fruit on the vines while picking. Preserve as much of the foliage of the tomato plants as possible so foliage can shade the fruits during very hot weather. About the first week in August tomatoes usually are ready to pick and an application of 200 pounds of a pelleted complete fertilizer or nitrogen fertilizer along could stimulate plant growth so that the plants would maintain a good leaf surface to protect the tomatoes from the hot sun.

NEW REDCOAT WHEAT

The new Redcoat wheat variety is recommended for Pennsylvania for 1961 planting. This variety has been thoroughly tested in the state during the past six years, and has proven consistently high yielding, with outstanding straw strength, satisfactory bushel weight, is beardless and has white chaff. It is earlier maturing and shorter strawed than Pennoll, Seneca or Dual. Redcoat wheat has high resistance to leaf rust, stem rust, mildew and soil borne mosaic. It is moderately resistant to loose smut. In addition Redcoat is Hessian fly resistant, which permits early fall seeding for fall pasture as well as for grain the following summer. Maintaining satisfactory turf in heavily shaded areas can be quite difficult, especially if the trees are shallow rooted trees, such as maples. The tree roots offer extreme competition for water and nutrients while the foliage of the tree restricts the amount of light which reaches the turf.

There are ten ways for improving shaded turf: (1) Use shade tolerant grasses, such as red fescue and poa trivialis. (2) Fertilize the turf grasses frequently at twice the normal rate. (3) Fertilize the trees by drilling or punching holes at one to two foot intervals in concentric circles extending from the trunk outward to an area equal to the branch spread of the area. Apply a 10-6-4 or equivalent fertilizer in the number of pounds equal to the height of the tree in feet plus the branch spread in feet plus the trunk circumference in inches. (4) Maintain a soil reaction favorable to the grasses. (5) Remove those trees which are not basic and do not add beauty to the landscape plan. (6) Prune tree branches as much as possible without destroying the function and the beauty of the tree. (7) Prune shallow tree roots as much as possible. (8) Adjust mowing practices to suit the grass species. In most cases, the clipping heights should be considerably higher than it would be for grass in the open sun. (9) Control weeds to improve the appearance of the turf and reduce the competition for light, water and nutrients. (10) Remove leaves and other debris promptly by raking, sweeping or mechanically grinding.

In cases of extreme shade where it is virtually impossible to maintain satisfactory turf, some other type of ground cover such as myrtle, pachysandra or English ivy may be used.

Fay Takes Oath As Tax Court Judge

WASHINGTON (AP)—William M. Fay, a native of Pittston, Pa., has been sworn in as a judge of the U. S. Tax Court before which he practiced as a government lawyer. Fay, who was named by President Kennedy to fill the unexpired term of Judge J. E. Murdock, who retired, was sworn in Thursday by Justice William J. Brennan Jr. of the Supreme Court. His term expires June 1, 1968.

The old Ottoman Empire put Kuwait inside Iraq. However, Kuwait has been a separate entity under British protection since 1899.

TERMS EASED FOR MORTGAGE DOWN PAYMENT

WASHINGTON (AP)—A substantial easing of mortgage and down-payment terms for higher-priced homes was authorized Friday by the Federal Home Loan Bank board.

In an action that can ease the way to home ownership for middle-income families, the board announced that federal savings and loan associations may make 30-year mortgage loans with a 10 per cent down payment on the home and a maximum loan of $26,500.

Previously, federal loan associations could make 10 per cent down payment loans for no more than 25 years and only up to a maximum loan of $22,000.

DOWN PAYMENT

The 10 per cent down payment applies on the first $25,000 of the home's value; 20 per cent is required on the value in excess of $25,000. Under the old regulation the mortgage could cover 90 per cent of the value of up to $20,000 plus 80 per cent of the value above $20,000.

For a $30,000 house, for instance, the new regulation means that a $3,500 cash down payment would be required with the mortgage loan at the $26,500 limit. Under the old regulation, an $8,000 down payment was required on such a house with the loan maximum at $22,000.

The new regulation also permits loans to be made for the first time to home owners themselves to finance construction. The amount of the mortgage in excess of 80 per cent of the value will be held back until construction is completed.

Democrats Endorse Alpern For Court

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Democratic State Policy Committee Friday endorsed Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alpern for a full, 21-year term on the state Supreme Court.

The committee, consisting of 16 of the state's top Democrats, slated Miss Alpern to run for the $30,000 a year post at the November general election.

Miss Alpern, 57, was named two weeks ago by Gov. Lawrence for an interim appointment on the bench until January, 1962.

The Senate has not yet acted on her appointment.

Miss Alpern would become the state's first woman justice. She would fill a vacancy created by the resignation July 31 of Chief Justice Charles Alvin Jones, also a Democrat.

State Polio Cases Lowest In 20 Years

HARRISBURG (AP)—Only seven polio cases have been reported in Pennsylvania so far this year says Dr. William Schrack Jr. of the State Health Department.

"Of course, it's too early to make any prediction," the doctor stated Thursday, "but this is the lowest total of cases we've had at this time in 20 years."

Noting that last year the state had only 12 polio cases before Aug. 1, but 152 when the year ended, Schrack warned against over-optimism.

"The first 10 days of September are generally regarded as the peak time for an outbreak of polio and this period is still ahead of us," the director of the Health Department's Division of Communicable Disease Control claimed.

Of the seven cases this year, only one, a 33-year-old man, has died, Schrack added.

Soldier Arrested On Assault Charge

NEW WINDSOR, N. Y. (AP)—Timothy Lau of Millmont, Pa., 18-year-old Army private, has been arrested and accused of beating and disrobing a woman and then dumping her on a street in Highland Falls, N. Y.

Lau, brought to state police barracks here Thursday, was booked on second degree assault charges. He was picked up earlier in the day at Camp Buckner in West Point, where he is stationed.

He was found semiconscious on the street last Wednesday. The woman, between 35 and 40 years of age, was cut and bruised. She had been disrobed from the waist down. Her pocketbook, shoes and part of her clothing were missing. She was taken to Cornwall Hospital, where her condition was reported as fair.

Lightning Bolt Kills 2 Reservists

CAMP A. P. HILL, Va. (AP)—Two soldiers were killed by lightning Thursday and 10 others were injured as the bolt crashed through a field kitchen tent here.

The men were all members of the 83rd Infantry Division, an Ohio Army Reserve unit on two weeks of summer active duty training at this Virginia camp.

Killed were Sgt. 1C William F. Means, 23, of Marysville, Ohio, and Pfc. Charles F. Stroh, 23, of Columbus, Ohio.

Apparently the most seriously injured when the lightning bolt struck during a sudden summer storm was Pfc. Marion Main of Ashley, Ohio. He was taken to the U.S. Army Hospital at Ft. Belvoir, Va., where his condition today was reported satisfactory.

YOUNG ZANUCK QUILTS STUDIO HE FOUNDED

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—There's a Zanuck at Warner Bros. studio these days, and how he got there is quite a story.

The Zanuck is not Darryl F., who headed production there in the early '30s. He is Richard D., son of D. F., and head of Zanuck enterprises in Hollywood.

In one of the surprise events of the Hollywood year, Dick moved to Warner's with "The Chapman Report," which had been scheduled for production at 20th Century-Fox. Nobody figured D. F. Z. would ever leave 20th, which he founded and of which he is the largest single stockholder.

WAS ANGERED

But then, nobody figured on an aroused Zanuck.

"It started when the committee that is now running 20th decided they wanted to postpone 'The Chapman Report,'" Dick related. "These are two or three men who not only have no movie background, they don't even go to movies. Yet they are deciding every bit of company procedure."

"Apparently the committee thought the picture would be too controversial at this time. But our contract calls for complete autonomy. D. Z. wasn't about to be told what he could film by a committee running the company he founded."

FREE TO DEAL

"Since the autonomy clause was broken, we were free to deal elsewhere. All it took was a phone call from D. Z., who was in Paris, to Jack Warner, who was in Cannes."

Spyros Skouras, (20th president) didn't even know about it until he read the news in the papers. He thought it was some kind of joke.

"The Chapman Report" is based on a Kinsey-like sex survey, but Dick denied it will be a lurid film. He said he already had approval of Hollywood censor Geoffrey Shurlock.

Dick said he is happy to be working amid the "enthusiasm" of Warners. "I didn't find enthusiasm for 'The Chapman Report' or anything else at 20th," he said.

In 1792 France was certain to fall when a strong Prussian-Austrian army marched against the inexperienced army of the French Revolution. But dysentery-carrying horseflies struck the invaders, sending them back across the Rhine.

Indian Receives Check For Penny

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — S. Sgt. James L. Allen of nearby Lockbourne Air Force Base has received a government check that may not even be worth his while cashing.

Allen, a native of Bristow, Okla., says he is a full-blooded member of the Yuchi Indian tribe. Several years ago, he said, the government made a settlement "of some kind" with his tribe. So far, he has received about $6 in "headright" money.

Recently he got another such payment from the government. U. S. Treasury experts estimated it cost the government about $1, including keeping of records, to give Allen another share.

The check, which could cost a nickel or a dime to cash in a bank or supermarket, was for one cent.

AWOL Youths Get Shakes In Jail

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Nine youths who said they were soldiers absent without leave from Ft. Bragg, N. C., were turned over to the military Thursday by police who picked up several on suspicion near the beach and found the other at the home of one lad's mother.

Mrs. Maxine Pierce, mother of Franklin S. Pierce, brought milk shakes to all of them at the lock-up before military police took over.

Besides young Pierce, the youths identifying themselves included James A. Noviemio, Lansdowne, Pa.; Robert L. Emmons, English-town, N. J.; Leonard R. Ecker, Norristown, Pa.; George Sheldon Jr., Philadelphia; and Herman L. Poff, Princeton, W. Va.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Police Commissioner Albert N. Brown said Friday he plans to meet with International Airport officials to discuss strengthening security measures against hijacking of air planes.

Formula Diets Are Not Cure-all For Weight Loss

MRS. HELEN D. TUNISON
Extension Home Economist

The 900 calorie formula diets are not a cure-all for the control of obesity. According to a statement by the Council on Foods and Nutrition of the American Medical Association, total dependence on a formula diet is not an intelligent approach to weight reduction and weight control on a long-term basis.

Formula diets may be safe for the healthy person who is only a few pounds overweight—it they are used for only a short period of time. However, individuals who are excessively overweight or have additional ailments should not start reducing without a doctor's guidance. In addition, 900 calories is too few for many people and may cause too rapid a weight loss. Also a formula diet may become monotonous and often it produces undesirable side effects such as diarrhea and constipation.

According to the American Medical Association, these points should be kept in mind when trying to reduce:

WEIGHT LOSS
It is usually unwise to try to lose more than 2 pounds per week because a rapid weight loss may leave you tired, grumpy and vulnerable to illness.

If you are more than 10 pounds overweight, see your family doctor before launching any do-it-yourself diet.

Build your reducing diet around ordinary foods. Plan to include foods from the four necessary food groups—the milk group, the meat group, the fruit-vegetable group, the bread-cereal group.

SECRET OF DIET

The secret to a successful diet is not a dramatic shake-up in your eating habits; it's just a bit less of everything. Of course there are some extravaganzas like chocolate nut sundaes you'll have to forego. A good reducing diet is one time retrains eating habits so that, time retrains eating habits so that with suitable caloric additions, it may become a pattern for life-time eating.

Only the dietary program which results in permanent weight loss and lifetime control of weight will be a satisfactory one.

SUMMER FRUIT STAINS
With fresh fruits and fruit drinks in season, don't let stains on clothing become a problem. Prompt action is the first step in removing fruit stains successfully. Some fruit juices, such as lemon, lime and grapefruit, are invisible on the fabric after they are dry but turn yellow upon aging or when pressed with a hot iron. This yellow stain may be hard to remove.

On washable articles, sponge a fruit stain with cool water. Or soak the stain in cool, clear water overnight if necessary. If a stain still remains, work detergent into it, then rinse.

For clothing that isn't washable, sponging the stain with cool water is still the best method. However certain precautions are needed to avoid overwetting the fabric. Apply the water to the stain with a medicine dropper, or lay the stained area over a sponge to quickly absorb the moisture. If a stain remains, rub detergent on the stain and work it into the fabric, then rinse the area with cool clear water. To help remove the detergent, sponge the area with rubbing alcohol. Before using alcohol, test it on the fabric to be sure it doesn't affect the dye. Dilute alcohol with two parts water before using it on acetate.

are an easy way to get more vitamin C into the daily diet. Vitamin C is the one most often deficient in the American diet. One medium-size raw tomato supplies nearly half of the amount of vitamin C recommended daily for adults. Canned or cooked tomatoes are also a rich source of vitamin C.

Cantaloupes, watermelons, green or red sweet peppers and cabbage are other excellent sources of this vitamin. Other members of the cabbage family, such as broccoli, Brussels sprouts and cauliflower, rate high in vitamin C. Fruits and vegetables high in vitamin C content retain the largest amount of this vitamin when served raw in salads or as relishes.

CITRUS JUICES

Citrus fruit juices are excellent thirst-quenchers. Lemonade and limeade are refreshing beverages for young and old alike and these warm weather drinks add an extra bonus of vitamin C.

When trading stamps first became popular in food stores, retailers absorbed most of the stamp cost through increased sales. No doubt this advantage has diminished as more and more retailers adopted stamp plans.

STAMP PLANS

It is hard to show whether the consumer receives a bargain when he buys where stamps are offered. The shopper who has a choice between stamp and non-stamp stores should carefully consider prices, quality of foods and services offered.

Certain facts may be stated in relations to trading stamp plans. These facts include:

The consumer who shops where stamps are offered should save the stamps and obtain premiums or he is losing money by just storing or mislaying stamps.

Trading stamps add to the total cost of store operation if sales are not increased as a result of the plan. Whether the plan results in increased or reduced costs, higher prices or savings may or may not be passed on to the consumer.

In terms of family needs, the good buy should be of primary consideration, not the stamps or resulting premiums.

Consumers should select premiums carefully when the stamp-books are filled because they cost money and should be handled like money.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate voted today a peacetime record $46,848,292,000 for defense. The huge appropriation bill embraces President Kennedy's request for nearly $3.5 billion to expand and equip the nation's conventional fighting forces.

And it includes nearly a billion dollars that Kennedy did not ask to continue production and development of powerful jet bombers and maintain and equip reserve and National Guard forces.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The latest note from Moscow on the Berlin crisis raised hope that practical steps to ease that dangerous East-West dispute may soon be taken.

On the surface, President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev appeared to be in agreement that the Soviet Union and the Western powers should negotiate for a solution. Their stress on the need for negotiation indicated that agreement may be obtained fairly soon on the form, time, place and level of East-West talks.

Andy Griffith Is Don Knott's No. 1 Fan

By R. KATLEMAN

THERE are method actors. And there are natural actors. And it's difficult to figure out where Don Knotts fits in. As "good old reliable deputy Barney Fife" on the Andy Griffith CBS-TV series, Don has gotten some of his greatest laughs via his fumbling nerves.

He has also gotten an Emmy from the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, and gotten his option picked up for a second season on the Griffith show.

Is Knotts really that nervous and unsure of himself?

Not even he knows, for certain. Take a typical day of shooting on the Griffith show. Don will be sitting quietly in a corner when he isn't working. He might be studying his script, or just smoking a cigarette, sipping coffee and apparently doing nothing. But a few minutes later, you'll see him talking quietly with Andy. And a huge gaffaw will emit from the latter.

"FUNNIEST MAN"

"That is the funniest man I have ever known," say Griffith without qualification. "Some of the funniest bits we had in the show last season were Don's. Just sits there, and comes up with 'em. Or he does a bit of he's lucky enough to get two hours off on a workday, he heads for the nearest course. Vacations with his pretty wife, Kay, are always spent in the proximity of at least one golf course, and preferably two. And while he's a devoted father to their two children, Karen aged 7 and Tom, 4½, he still wangles time on week-ends for the golf course.

It's almost impossible to write of Don Knotts these days without bringing in his association with Andy Griffith. The friendship between the two goes back some years to "No Time For Sergeants," where Don played the nervous—again—soldier juggling the rings. He played the role on Broadway for two years and then came to Hollywood for the movie version.

"NERVOUS ROLE"

It was the nervous role in "No Time For Sergeants" which actually got Knotts started on his present role in the Griffith series. During the long waits backstage, he began creating comedy material.

"I wasn't really nervous," he says. "I just had a good memory. And I remembered this after-dinner speaker I'd seen back home in Morgantown, W. Va. He was nervous. So I aped him. And gradually built up the routines."

Monday night in February of 1960 at 9 p.m. and by midnight that same night, its present sponsors had made up their minds. So creator and executive producer Sheldon Leonard went to work with Producer Aaron Ruben and the series' various writers, and figured out the role of Andy's sidekick, Deputy Barney Fife.

"It was a lucky phone call I made that night," Don observes with equanimity.

The two at work might be compared to a modern-day Damon and Pythias. They complement each other perfectly in manners and temperament.

But it's the quietly-thinking mind of Knotts that has created some of his more hilarious routines on the show. Again, as his spokesman, Andy points out:

"That show where Don is reading the police manual when I come into the office. And he's memorizing it. He says 'Try me.' And I do. And he can't think of the first word. Sure, the writers wrote a brilliant scene. And Don brought it to life. He fumbled and stumbled over the first word, which was 'the.' But his timing is beautiful. Just beautiful. And he breaks me up. Every time."

FROM WEEKLY TV DIGEST:

Sheb Wooley obtained his release from CBS-TV because he was dissatisfied with recent roles on the "Rawhide" series . . . Warner Brothers will film a half-hour TV drama, "The Misery Merchants," as a public service for the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation . . . Sensitive to criticism of TV violence, NBC-TV has revamped the formula for next season's "The Outlaws." The outlaws, who have occupied the series 80 per cent of the time this season, will share it 50-50 with the lawmen next season.

FROM RADIO-TV DAILY:

Already set for guest appearances on "Checkmate" in the fall are Dorothy Malone, Sid Caesar, Vera Miles and Walter Pidgeon . . . NBC-TV's forthcoming series, "Car 54, Where Are You?" is a cops-without-robbers comedy show created and produced by Nat Hiken, who developed the "Bilko" series . . . Judy Garland is scheduled for an hour-long special on March 11, 1962, over CBS-TV . . . "Paper Bullets," authentic drama of Germany's World War II counterfeit money scheme will be the "Du Pont Show of the Week" colorcast on NBC-TV Sunday, October 15 . . . "Adlai Stevenson Reports" will be featured bi-weekly on ABC-TV in the fall.

FROM THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER:

Ed Sullivan will film a Brigitte Bardot interview in Paris this summer for fall TV exposure in connection with her MGM film, "A Very Private Love" . . . Michael Rennie has left the Broadway production of "Mary, Mary" to return to Hollywood for his "Third Man" TV series.

CLIFFORD TO TOUR WITH

DICK CLARK: Columbia Records' artist Mike Clifford has been signed for the "Dick Clark Caravan of Stars," which will tour state fairs later in the summer. Clifford recently appeared on the Ed Sullivan TV Show and has been signed for two additional Sullivan appearances in the fall. Dates set for the Clark tour are August 11, Hollywood Bowl; August 21-27, Kansas Centennial, Wichita; August 30, 31, Indiana State Fair, Indianapolis; September 1-4, Michigan State Fair, Detroit.

business. Anyone else try it, nothing. When Don does it, you can fall down dead laughing. I do, too, lots of times."

Knotts himself doesn't think he's particularly funny. Or if he does, he hasn't been that immodest to mention it.

"I'm just doing a job. And I enjoy what I'm doing," he says quietly. Not particularly taciturn, he still isn't a chatterbox type, and is the kind who'd rather sit and listen to conversation around him than conduct it. He'll participate when necessary. He isn't a life of the party type by any means.

IS GOLF ENTHUSIAST

Except on one subject, Golf. To this he is dedicated, and if

At that time Garry Moore was doing his highly successful daytime show five times weekly on CBS. Don auditioned the act for him, and did a spot on the show. At the same time, he "doubled" onto Steve Allen's "Tonight" series. Still being nervous, Don became a regular on the Steve Allen show, and moved to Los Angeles with the cast in 1959.

"The show had just gone off the air, and I saw the pilot Andy did on Danny Thomas' show. I called up Andy and asked if he had a job for me, if the series sold. He said he figured they would. And it was as easy as that."

The Griffith series made history in a way, in that it aired on a would doubtless ask to be its first honorary president—he is that avid an admirer of Knotts.

At home, it should be noted, Don isn't nervous. He's head of the household, and his petite, red-haired wife hasn't any mind in the world to usurp his authority.

A completely happy man is Don Knotts these days. He has a job he loves. And it therefore may be construed that, if he's nervous on the Griffith show, he's just acting it. As one newsman wrote: "Don goes on his tortured way as Barney Fife. He never appears to be happy for more than fleeting seconds in the script."

"But I am," he insists stoutly. "I love it."

And he does. Undoubtedly.

Make Mine Comedy

When people ask me why, although I've had professional experience as a magician and a ventriloquist, I don't provide "samples" on "Who Do You Trust," I answer them this way:

I don't think there's much of a market for magicians on TV. There are so many electronic tricks on television that, if an illusionist were to saw a woman in half, viewers would figure it was done with some fancy work on the part of the camera.

It's so usual to watch a miniature dancer performing on the palm of a show's emcee that the only magic which pays off on TV is the kind with comedy. The Great Ballantine is an example. Just trying to fool people isn't enough.

In my spare time I play around with sleight-of-hand a bit. As a youngster I drove my family wild. Once, I interrupted my dad in the middle of a business conference with an invitation to "pick a card."

I haven't done much with ventriloquism, either, although I keep a dummy around for practice. My lip control is pretty fair, but I wouldn't want to perform on TV in competition with performers like Paul Winchell.

I'd rather leave the magic to magicians, ventriloquism to ventriloquists.

Make mine comedy!

JEALOUS, GIRLS?

Dietary advice is wasted on Dorothy Provine, a star of ABC-TV's "The Roaring 20's." She often eats an all dessert dinner, topping it off with second helpings of chocolate ice cream.

ARE WOMEN UNPREDICTABLE?

Jack Bailey, emcee of "Queen For A Day" cites an example concerning a winner who was sent to a Idaho resort on an expense paid vacation. On arrival, she scolded the hotel manager when he inadvertently dropped her new luggage — a gift from "Queen." But she ended her sojourn by marrying him.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

By MARSHALL TUCKEY
Chicago's Stockyard Inn is one of the best-known steak houses. It was built to serve cattlemen who brought their herds to the world's biggest stockyards. The Inn is a combination of the West's and English architecture. Near the center of the room is the "Steak Throne," where beautiful steaks repose on a bed of ice. This is flanked by braziers that hold branding irons so you can choose the steak you want, brand it, and your brand is still legible when the steak is served sizzling hot.

Coast To Coast On Television

MATHIS "HIGHEST PAID STAR" EVER IN BRITAIN:
Startling, but true, is the fact that singer Johnny Mathis, currently touring British vaudeville houses, is receiving the highest fee ever paid to a performer in Britain. He is being paid 21,000 pounds (equivalent to $30,000) for fourteen one-night engagements. According to London papers, he is being paid more—by far—than performers like Judy Garland, Bobby Darin, and Harry Belafonte who have made similar tours.

POLLY BERGEN RECALLS THE EARLY DAYS: Polly Bergen, today among the highest paid TV stars, recalls that for her first appearance on TV she was paid $15, and had to pay her agency, Music Corporation of America, $1.50 in commissions. "I was so angry at having to pay that $1.50, that for a while I would only appear on programs which paid me merchandise instead of money. For one appearance I got a year's supply of the sponsor's product—canned soup. I offered one-tenth of the cans to my agency, but no one there liked soup, so they let me keep it all."

JULIA MEADE IN "SEND ME NO FLOWERS": Having completed a five-week summer stock tour as star of "Pajama Game," Julia Meade will next trod the boards in "Send Me No Flowers," in which Orson Bean will be her co-star. The week of August 7, Julia will be in Skowhegan, Maine; and the week of August 14 in Ogunquit, Maine.

THE HEIGHT OF FAME: Mel Allen received an unusual honor recently. A Little League baseball team in Staten Island, N. Y., was named in his honor, "The Mel Allena." The team is currently leading its league, which brings up a question: If they win the pennant, will Mel Allen announce the Little League World Series?

Any Questions?

Q. Was Jack Bailey ever master of ceremonies on the daytime TV show "Truth or Consequences?" S.P.
A. No. He hasn't had time, he started as a temporary replacement on "Queen For A Day" 15 years ago, while it was still on radio and he's been with it ever since.
